RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS & GUESTS

Except for swimming while the lifeguard is on duty and the swimming area is open, the Club cannot provide supervision or other care and can take no responsibility for children at the Club. Parents leave children at the Club unattended solely at their own risk.

Each Club member, and each child, invitee or other person using Club facilities, participating in Club or individual activities on or about the Club property assumes full responsibility for themselves and indemnifies the Club, its Directors, officers and members and will hold them harmless from any claim or liability whatsoever, under all circumstances, arising or in connection with their use of the Club facilities, presence on or about Club property or participation in Club activities.
